AMERICAN GOLD
THE LEGEND OF BEAR GULCH

Wednesdays 8-9pm | Re-Air 10-11pm

The Dale Brothers made a childhood pact; one day, they'd return home to Montana and buy the land where they grew up, the wild mountain valley of Bear Gulch. The very land their father, uncles, and grandfather could never afford but mined and lived on their entire lives. Now, after 45 years of planning and spending nearly every cent they own, they've finally secured 800 acres and are ready to chase down their family's legends… legends that could be worth millions in gold, handed down through the generations for over 100 years.
